

Music For All Ages

Suzanne C. Smithline
Vocalist/Bass Guitar

Suzanne C. Smithline is a full-time entertainer with over thirty years experience performing in settings such as senior citizen centers, outpatient programs and rehabilitation facilities. Her musical program of standards, rock and roll favorites and holiday songs is perfect for therapeutic recreation and lends itself to listening, singing along, dancing or playing rhythm instruments.

Suzanne accompanies herself on bass guitar, utilizing customized backing tracks created by her husband and musical partner Glenn Paul Manion. She has a variety of sound equipment at her disposal, enabling her to perform for large or small groups.

Her introductory price for facilities in Brooklyn, Queens and Long Island is $100 for a 50-minute performance.
